

Josh owns and operates Karnview Farms in Woodstock, along with his brother and parents, where they milk 90 cows in a new freestall barn, along with a show heifer facility. They breed for elite type and focus on deep pedigreed animals.

Josh has been involved in the dairy industry from a young age growing up on the family farm and being involved with 4-H. He has been very involved in the show industry from being a fitter, to now showing under the Karnview Prefix. He is also a board member of the Oxford county Holstein club.

He has bred & owned many All-Canadian, All- American & All-Ontario nominations. Josh has also represented Ontario/Canada at the World Dairy Expo judging competition. He has clipped a World Dairy Expo Grand champion & Reserve Supreme Champion and received the Mike Mcgrisken memorial award in 2021

Josh has judged; New Hamburg Fall Fair, Tavistock Fall Fair, Glencoe Fair, East Hants 4H Show (Nova Scotia), Annapolis Valley 4H Show (Nova Scotia)